Text: 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 (p. 988)

According to the Bible there exists three facets of God's will.

The _____ will of God refers to the things that God is going to do regardless.

The _____ will of God refers to the do's and don'ts God has commanded in His word.

The _____ will of God refers to the unique things the Father wants to do with our individual lives.

The more we _____ to the providential will of God, and the more _____ we are to the moral will of God, the easier it is to _____ the personal will of God.

Tools to _____ and _____ God's will.
