

CIRCLE | Say to the Mountain

January 22, 2017

Text: Matthew 17:14-20 (p.822)

There is something within the human heart that knows that we were made for more than _____.

Something within us desires to be part of something that matters, that we were designed to be part of, something eternally _____.

(Ecc. 3:11)

We pray first that God might birth mountain-sized _____ in us.

The greatest struggle of prayer is in thinking prayer is about _____ and what _____ want.

Prayer first and foremost is about _____.

God in His greatness invites us to join Him in bringing about the goodness of His _____ to the earth. (Lk. 11:1-4)

In a way that is well beyond our ability to fully grasp, the sovereign God very often waits for His people to pray and act _____ to bring His heavenly kingdom to earth.

The Scripture shouts that somehow the prayer of faith _____ (Ex. 32:9-14)

If at the end of our lives we can explain everything we were a part of, then we have not really _____! (1 Cor. 3:12-15)

Our _____ into heaven comes only through believing in Jesus and what He did for us. It is nothing I do but all what He did.

But the _____ we receive in heaven will be based on our faithfulness to what the Father was seeking to birth in us.

Let's not just _____ around the things we think need to happen.

That's ok. But let's ask God to birth mountain-sized dreams in us, the places where He is leading us to _____ with Him.