

Overcoming Disappointment ...With Me

The _____ of our disappointment in this season is exactly the reason this may be one of the greatest opportunities we may ever have in our faith journey.

A lot of incredible things we take for granted in our society all trace their roots to the work the _____ did in His early followers in the midst of their disappointment.

Disappointment is the feeling of an _____.

My own life – my life of walking with others – tells me what we most tend to remember are my mistakes and _____.

I tend to remember how I am a _____.

Unresolved disappointment leads to _____.

Peter's own disappointment with himself led him to believe he wasn't _____ for God's work in Him and through Him.

Hope _____ disappointment. _____!

Most of the time when the word hope is used in our culture, we use it with the idea of _____.

In the Bible, hope is a _____ that is merely yet to be seen.

_____. (Rm. 8:1)

No matter who we are or what we've done or what unrealistic line we think we've crossed, Jesus offers to pay for our sins, His _____ overcoming our disappointment.

When we say _____ to follow Him, meaning I repent and turn the other direction, I give my life to Him to use as He desires, He makes us in Christ.

_____. (Rm. 8:37)

God is working for my good even in my _____. (Rm. 8:28)

And He uses even _____ to do this good work.

(2 Cor. 3:18; Jam. 1:2-4)

I have hope – confidence – that I will come out on the other side of this crisis stronger and more _____.

_____. (Rm. 8:38)

NOTE: If you said yes to follow Jesus, please go to beltway.org/yes and let us know.