

When HE Speaks Open Doors

We are _____ we are to be _____ we are.

And each day, like Paul, we will find open doors, _____ God creates to fulfill the will of God in our lives. (1 Cor. 16:8-9)

Since we are to offer our bodies as _____, God's will is about the way I live each and every day.

The providential will of God refers to the things God is going to do _____ (Acts 2:23)

The moral will of God refers to the do's and don'ts God has _____ in His word. (1 Thess. 4:3)

This is where God shows the immenseness of _____. He allows each of us the power to embrace Him or resist Him.

The personal will of God refers to the _____ things the Father wants to do with our individual lives.

I estimate that _____ of God's will for our lives is in the "moral will" category – things He has specifically directed in Scripture that we obey.

The more we _____ to the providential will of God, and the more _____ we are to the moral will of God, the easier it is to _____ the personal will of God. Andy Stanley _____ gives us the keys to the kingdom of Heaven because He's regularly going to bring us to doors where we can use those keys. (Mt. 16:9)

In the Scripture, a door represents opportunity to be obedient to God. A door is a pathway to find His _____. (Rev. 3:7-8)

Every day the Father is going to bring us to doors that allow us the opportunity to fulfill His will for our lives, His will that is _____, pleasing and perfect.

Daily we will be given opportunities to be followers of Jesus who are empowered to bring _____, _____ and _____ to a world who desperately needs it. (Lk. 19:10; Mk. 10:45; Lk. 4:18-19)