

No Longer Naïve Destroyer

Text: James 4:5-10 (p. 1013)

To remain naïve to the enemy in hopes he will leave you alone is absurd and foolish, and we do so to great _____ to ourselves and those we love.

We must _____. (Eph. 6:10-11)

Two words – _____ - represent the greatest scheme of the enemy.
(Is. 14:12-15)

Satan goes after the heart of God by going after our heart, seeking to _____ us from God.

_____ is what we must most resist.

It is....

- When we don't _____ to God.
- When we don't _____ to God.
- When don't cleanse our hands and purify our hearts, when we don't _____ ourselves before God.

My fears, worries and anxieties are all rooted in it, that it's about _____ and up to _____.

Nothing battles against it more than _____ that flows from the heart because worship is an act of battle that declares Yahweh alone is God, and I am not.

When I don't _____, what I'm saying is, "God, I don't really need you. I can find peace through this season without you." That's _____.
(Phil. 4:6-7)

When I don't regularly engage God's _____, then I'm saying the trivial and divisive things we're feeding our minds with right now will help me find abundant life, not You, God. That's _____. (Phil. 4:8)

When I don't functionally have _____ in my life helping me grow, I'm saying, "God, I don't believe you when you say I need other people and they need me to follow You. I can do this all on my own, just me and You" – that's _____. (Heb. 10:24-25)

What I need most in this season – what I need most period – is _____.
