

Five Stones Giants in the Land

God has worked – God _____ - in powerful ways. It is what we see in the Bible; it is what we as a community experience as we follow Jesus.

_____.

If you didn't know the end of the story, what _____ do you give David?
(1 Sam. 17:4-7; 2 Sam. 21:20)

Most of us give David better _____ than we give ourselves against our giants.

_____ and _____. What better words could describe our world right now? (1 Sam. 17:11)

We all see Goliath. We all hear his voice taunting us, heaping _____ on us with every fear-inducing shout.

Is the giant all we _____? Are his taunts all we _____?
(1 Sam. 17:26)

Life's giants demand _____.

This account is about far more than David and Goliath. This is _____ vs. _____. (1 Sam. 17:36-37,45-47)

David saw what others didn't see and _____ to focus on what others focused on.

_____ superseded everything else. David wanted to know God. David redeemed his time to focus on the reality of God. (Ps. 27:4)

He spent time meditating on the reality of God – _____.

God designed us to walk through life with him, _____ on Him, following Him, relying on His strength – knowing deep within what David knew.

The _____ is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The _____ is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?
Psalms 27:1

NOTE: I received a lot of insight for this message from chapter one in Facing Your Giants by Max Lucado. It's a great read when you have time.
