

Five Stones The Path of Life

Comfort — when it is _____ — _____.

_____ yourself to be godly. For physical _____ is of some value, but godliness has value for all things, holding promise for both the present life and the life to come. 1 Timothy 4:7-8

There is a great amount of Scripture that is easy to understand. We struggle _____ with what we do understand than what we don't.

What we do understand, though it equips us for the realities of life if we listen and apply it, makes us _____.

(2 Tim. 3:16-17)

One of the primary reasons we struggle to pray is that in prayer God often works on _____.

And though I know in my head that is not just for my good but for my best, something within resists — something gigantic — that wants to stay comfortable even if part of me knows it is ultimately

_____.

David knew that what he was longing for in life — the _____ that God promised to him — wouldn't be found in always seeking comfort.

You make known to me the _____; in your presence there is fullness of joy; at your right hand are pleasures forevermore. Psalm 16:11

The _____ of _____ is found by faith. (Heb. 11:1,6)

God doesn't give us a map. He gives us His _____.

Faith always leads to obedience, and obedience produces great _____ in our lives. But it is often very _____.

Unashamedly I want everything God has for my life — everything on the _____.

So we are always of good _____...for we walk by faith, not by _____. 2 Corinthians 5:6-7
