

Five Stones Anger

We have an _____.

Unrighteous anger _____.

Anger isn't a sin, but often our _____ to anger is a sin.
(Ephesians 4:26-27, 29-31)

_____ to _____. (James 1:19-20)

_____ communicates value.

When we begin with listening, we set ourselves up for conflict to become iron sharpening iron not _____ with our words. (Proverbs 27:17) _____ to _____.

How can we possibly praise God and _____ made in His very image? (James 3:9-10)

Slow to become _____.

_____ it.

Exposing the sin of anger by bringing it into the _____ helps _____ it from your life. (James 5:16)