

Carols

Joy to the World

The fact of Jesus coming so _____ anything this fallen world might throw at us, that we can have, we should have, joy.

Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the _____ set before him endured the cross...

Hebrews 12:2

Joy in all circumstances is our inheritance because the _____
_____.

When the wise men saw the star, they rejoiced _____ with _____. Matthew 2:10

Wise humans go out of their way to seek Jesus. They don't stop at the point of _____.

The _____ of good news is directly proportionate to how _____ the bad news is.

The last being in the universe we want mad at us, that we want as our _____ is God. And that is exactly the message of the Bible. God is _____! (Rm. 5:9-10)

What if this depravity called sin means I cannot fix myself, cannot clean myself, cannot find for myself a way to be _____?

What if sin means all – all includes me – must be _____ to pay for my sins? (Mt. 10:28; Hb. 10:30-31)

What if my only chance was to start over – to be made new – to be _____?

What if the miraculous were done and the impossible became possible?
What if someone else _____ for my sins?

And what if I didn't have to spend eternity apart from God, but I could become God's child and share in the _____ He lavishes on His children?

Joy is the inner confidence, the deep _____, that comes because the most important issue in my existence is settled.

By faith I am _____ with God through Jesus.