

Marriage is for Losers Set Apart

Text: Ephesians 5:22-33 (p.978)

Marriage is about _____ not _____.

Marriage is about _____ that leads to deep things like righteousness, joy, and _____. (Mt. 16:25)

In marriage we are set apart _____...

At its core, covenant has this idea of the entirety of two parties being joined together in a _____ way. (Gen. 15:5-18)

Covenant is about _____, a commitment to work through our problems that become very apparent when the infatuation is gone. (Mal. 2:14)

In marriage we are set apart _____...

Marriage, because of its intensity, shows us _____ more than any human relationship.

Where there is anything life giving, there will be _____.
(Pr. 14:4)

When we say marriage is so we can be set apart _____, we're _____ saying it's a spouse's job to get rid of sin in their spouse.

We give covenant, and we encourage our spouse to run after Jesus first as his/her _____.

And I deal with _____ as it is revealed in the pressure cooker of marriage.

And if you have a man and woman in marriage both set apart _____ and each other seeking to be set apart _____, the result is great gain!