

Above the Noise Revealed to Little Children

Text: Matthew 11:25-30 (p. 816)

Rest comes as we know the _____ for His children. (Mt. 18:2-4)

What if we got deep within that God is a Father whose heart for His children is so grand we find it almost impossible to _____?
(Mt. 7:9-11)

Part of _____ in Christ is childlikeness – a humility that willingly embraces the Father's absolute care and control. (Col. 1:28)

Rest comes as we sit in the _____.

As soon as we in faith say yes to be a follower of Jesus, we move from _____ (chair 3) into a _____ of the King of the universe (chair 1).

If we truly want to be anxious no more, we have to move in our minds and spirits from being an _____ to being a _____.

Chair 2 (orphan)

Chair 1 (child)

The orphan heart (chair two): I do so I can have so I can _____.

The child's heart (chair one): I _____ therefore I have, and from what I have
I do.
