

God's Promises: Take Them to the Bank Godly Influencers

The saying is trustworthy: If anyone aspires to the office of overseer, he desires a _____ . 1 Timothy 3:1

Godly influence is our _____ .

Though not necessarily public figures, our elders are the _____ for our church.

When we desire for our lives to influence people's lives like an elder does in a local church, we're longing for that which is _____ . (Mt. 5:13-14)

Godly influence begins with _____ .

_____ will lead to a greater depth of influence in the lives of people than a large platform ever will. (2 Tim. 1:5)

Godly influence comes as we allow people to get a little close to our lives, and they see not perfection but _____ in our faith. (1 Cor. 11:1)

Godly influencers _____ others.

More than we realize everyone needs people in their lives – especially in their faith journey – who are _____ , people who are telling others, “In Jesus you can do this!” (1 Thess. 5:11; Eph. 4:15)

Godly influencers _____ for others.

Godly influencers have _____ for the supernatural work of God in and through others. We intercede for it to come about, speak it over them, and _____ for it when they cannot. (1 Tim. 4:14)

It's about praying for people in our lives, hearing God and speaking prophetically into the character and _____ the Father has for their life.