Text: Romans 11 (p. 946)

Since the Jewish people transgressed and _____ when it came to Jesus, followers of Jesus began to speculate that maybe God was done with the Jews.

In fact, followers of Jesus through the centuries have taught that the _____ has replaced Israel in God's plan and is the one to inherit God's promises to Israel.

_____ for all are coming as Jewish people awaken to Jesus.

If God will _____ on his promises to Abraham and his children, why would we expect God will be faithful to us?

But God is incapable of being anything less than _____.

A day is coming when "the full number of _____" will come to know Jesus as their Lord and Savior.

When this occurs, the Jewish people in mass, will come to believe in their _____.

And when that happens, guess what? _____ for the world!!

All the good that has been brought to the world through followers of Jesus in the last 2000 years far _____ the negative.

And all those wonderful things – _____ than what is to come!!

_____ around the Jewish people – give God no rest - until their eyes open to their Messiah and the greater riches of God are released on our children, our grandchildren, and our world. (Is. 62:6-7)
